Presenter Reflection

Your Name: _____ Topic: _____

Directions*: Reflection is an important strategy that can help you remember what you've learned. Spend 5 minutes writing about your presentation. You may write about anything you wish, as long as it is related to the presentation. This will not be graded; it is just for you and the teacher to see what you are learning and thinking about. If you run out of space, you may write on the back of this paper.*