

Situation #1

Directions: Read the situation below. Using the past perfect tense, continue making a list of events that could have happened when the man arrived home.

A man arrived home having left his new puppy on it's own for the first time.

When he arrived home he saw...

(example)     his puppy had eaten all the plants in the house.

Situation #2

Directions: Read the situation below. Using the past perfect tense, continue making a list of events that could have happened when the teacher came back to the classroom.

A teacher left her students alone in the classroom for too long.

When she walked back in the classroom, she saw...

(example)     the students had drawn pictures all over their desks.

Situation #3

Directions: Read the situation below. Using the past perfect tense, continue making a list of events that could have happened when the couple came back to their car.

A couple let a friend borrow their car while they were on vacation.

When the couple came back to their car they saw...

(example) their friend hadn't filled up the gas tank.